Dear John:

I want to thank you for your excellent contribution to FBIS during your rotational tour as Deputy Chief, Analysis Group. I was impressed by the speed with which you emerged as a valued and productive member of the FBIS management team and by the high regard in which you were held by your associates at all levels in FBIS. The reception of the FBIS analytic product throughout the Community during the year certainly speaks well for the skill and sound judgment you brought to your review of the Group's reports and articles, your primary regular responsibility. From our vantage point, the year passed all too quickly.

Please accept my best wishes, in behalf of all your colleagues here, for continued success in your career and my congratulations again on your recent, well-deserved promotion to the Senior Intelligence Service. We would be more than happy to see you back in FBIS, either in Headquarters or in the field, should the opportunity arise in the future.
